LB 17, 179, 260, 298, 364

has been...that particular bill had been before the committee more than once. At Section 9 of the committee amendment we move to LB 260, introduced by Senator Curt Bromm. The current statute is amended regarding law enforcement jurisdiction. In instances where probable cause exists that a person is operating a vehicle, motorboat or aircraft under the influence of alcoholic liquor, a law enforcement officer may transport such person outside the law enforcement officer's primary jurisdiction for chemical testing, administer a post-arrest chemical test advisement to such person outside the officer's primary jurisdiction, or perform other procedures with respect to such person outside the primary jurisdiction of the law enforcement officer which are related to enforcing our driving under the influence laws. At Sections 10 through 16 of the committee amendment we deal with LB 364, introduced by Senator Mick Mines. Sections 10 through 16 specify that the prosecuting attorney means county attorney, city attorney, or designated attorney for purposes of filing an appeal. City attorneys are provided the same powers of appeal under the bill that county attorneys currently have. Provisions are harmonized by removing references to "county attorney" and inserting the term "prosecuting attorney" in order that it can be applied across the several jurisdictions. At Section 17 of the committee...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: ...amendment we incorporate LB 179, introduced by Senator Gene Tyson. Current law authorizes criminal justice agencies to charge reasonable fees not to exceed actual costs for the search, retrieval and copying of criminal justice records. The amendment adds "storing" and "maintaining" to what criminal justice agencies may charge reasonable fees for in managing criminal justice records. The criminal justice record fees collected may then be used for computer system maintenance and upgrades, as well as storage space. At Section 18 of the committee amendment we incorporate LB 298 by Senator Paul Hartnett. Under current law, those serving sentences in a county or city jail may be granted the privilege of leaving the jail for purposes of work, school attendance, death...I think that's the death of someone near and dear to them...death or serious injury of a family member, or
